

1-2 August 2024

Calling: Supervisees, Supervisors of Practice &
Supervisors of Supervision

Developing Skills in Supervision: Giving and Receiving Supervision

SYNOPSIS

This workshop aims to help supervisors and supervisees explore & articulate their relationship to supervision through a reflexive inquiry so that they can work together to create a relationship with a relational reflexive rigour and imagination.

SOME KEY TAKEAWAYS:

- Understanding of one's narrative of supervision at multiple levels of meaning
- Awareness of experience of and approach to supervision
- Familiarity with supervisory techniques
- Extending abilities to make the most of supervision while giving and receiving supervision

ABOUT THE TRAINER

John Burham

- Consultant Family and Systemic Psychotherapist, Inpatient Service for Eating Disorders at Parkview Clinic, Birmingham Women's and Children's Hospital
- Founder & Director of Systemic Training Programme

Approach to therapy and supervision is influenced by systemic, narrative and social construction theories and his working class roots.

$1,200/pax

**All fees are subjected to prevailing GST*