Post Graduate Certificate in Systemic Practice with Couples

PGC-SPC

5 April 2024 to 8 August 2024

The course will be funded under the non-preapproved CCF route for VWOs.

COURSE DETAILS

Introduction

This is a 94.5-hours part-time programme to equip trainees to work with couples. This programme will provide trainees with a greater understanding of the dynamics of couples from a systemic framework. Its distinctive feature is the emphasis on facilitating trainees' development of a repertoire of skills and techniques through guidance and supervision of their clinical practice with couples.

This course is module 1 of Post Graduate Diploma in Family and Systemic Practice (PGDFSP). Lectures will be conducted in a whole class while supervision groups will be conducted in smaller groups (less than 10 persons per group). The course will include a 2-day intensive training with an overseas trainer who is a renowned systemic practitioner.

Learning Outcomes

This course enables participants to:

1. Develop an intermediate level of theoretical and clinical training in working with couples with a systemic approach.
2. Apply clinical and case management skills appropriately in convening and engaging couples in a range of challenging issues and in working with them systemically in multidisciplinary settings.
3. Increase self- reflexivity by generating an understanding of self as a practitioner in clinical practice and in management of ethical dilemmas.

Duration

94.5 hours (part-time), 5 months.

Structure

The course will be on Fridays, 9.00am to 6.00pm.

There will be a block of intensive training session (2 consecutive full-days, possibly Thu-Fri, subject to further confirmation) from a visiting lecturer in May 2024 respectively.

* Supervision of Clinical Practice with Couples will be on Fridays 9.00am to 4.00pm.
