

New training dates are pending until further notice in September

Calling: Supervisees, Supervisors of Practice &
Supervisors of Supervision

Developing Skills in Supervision: Giving and Receiving Supervision

SYNOPSIS

This workshop aims to help supervisors and supervisees explore & articulate their relationship to supervision through a reflexive inquiry so that they can work together to create a relationship with a relational reflexive rigour and imagination.

Click To Register

SOME KEY TAKEAWAYS:

- Understanding of one's narrative of supervision at multiple levels of meaning
- Awareness of experience of and approach to supervision
- Familiarity with supervisory techniques
- Extending abilities to make the most of supervision while giving and receiving supervision

ABOUT THE TRAINER

John Burnham

- Consultant Family and Systemic Psychotherapist, Inpatient Service for Eating Disorders at Parkview Clinic, Birmingham Women's and Children's Hospital
- Founder & Director of Systemic Training Programme

Approach to therapy and supervision is influenced by systemic, narrative and social construction theories and his working class roots.

$1,308.00/pax with GST (Lunch & Tea-breaks provided)

Eligible NCSS / MSF-funded Social Service Organisations only
(LIMITED TRAINING PLACES LEFT)

- Pre-approved PCG subsidy of $392.40 • $915.60/pax with GST (Singaporean/PR)