

New training dates are pending until further notice in September

Calling: Supervisees, Supervisors of Practice & Supervisors of Supervision

Workshop on Supervision In The Context Of Diversities: Working With Sameness & Differences

Ever heard of the acronym of social GgRRAAAACCEEEESSSS...S?

Gender; Geography; Race; Religion; Age; Ability; Appearance; Accent; Affiliation; Class; Culture; Ethnicity Education; Employment; Economics; Sexuality; Spirituality; Sexual Orientation... Explore the influence of these in therapy, supervision and supervisory relationships!

SOME KEY TAKEAWAYS:

- Understanding of one's narrative of supervision at multiple levels of meaning
- Awareness of one's personal GgRRAAAACCEEEESSSS...S and influence on supervision
- Extending one abilities to supervise with respect and without fear.
- Extending one abilities to supervise without taking shared experience for granted.

Trainer: John Burnham

- Consultant Family and Systemic Psychotherapist, Inpatient Service for Eating Disorders at Parkview Clinic, Birmingham Women's and Children's Hospital
- Founder & Director of Systemic Training Programme

Approach to therapy and supervision is influenced by systemic, narrative and social construction theories and his working class roots.

Click To Register

$1,308.00/pax with GST (Lunch & Tea-breaks provided)

Eligible NCSS / MSF-funded Social Service Organisations only (LIMITED TRAINING PLACES LEFT)

• Pre-approved PCG subsidy of $392.40 • $915.60/pax with GST (Singaporean/PR)