

Bio

Tremandy Ng believes that each individual is unique and has intrinsic worth. She hopes that as she journeys with clients that they experience being seen, heard and held in a safe space.

In her free time, Tremandy enjoys activities that help her slow down, e.g. nature walks with her dog and tending to her plants. She is energised by teaming up with her dog for dog tricks and agility.

Educational Background

- B.A. (Social Work & Psychology), National University of Singapore
- M.Soc.Sc (Counselling and Psychotherapy), Edith Cowan University
- P.G.Dip. (Clinical Supervision), Counselling and Care Centre

Accreditations

- Registered Social Worker, Singapore Association of Social Workers (SASW)