

NARRATIVE THERAPY LEVEL ONE

BY MOHAMED FAREEZ
Narrative Practitioner

PART OF A FORMAL
SPECIALISED CERTIFICATION PATHWAY:

Level One → Level Two → Practitioner

COURSE SYNOPSIS

Practitioners would have an opportunity to develop foundational skills in this collaborative and strengths-based therapeutic approach. Narrative therapy focuses on helping individuals externalise problems, explore alternative stories and uncover personal strengths to foster meaningful change. The training also emphasises the importance of cultural sensitivities and adapting narrative practices for diverse contexts.

WHY TAKE NARRATIVE THERAPY LEVEL ONE?

Narrative Therapy Practitioners would be equipped with tools to:

- Help clients separate themselves from their problems, promoting empowerment and agency.
- Work collaboratively to uncover and amplify strengths and resilience in individuals, families, and communities.
- Address complex issues such as trauma, grief, and identity in culturally sensitive and inclusive ways.
- Expand their professional practice with a flexible, client-centered approach applicable across diverse settings.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

Social workers, counsellors, therapists, psychologists, educators, school counsellors, community workers, case managers and healthcare professionals
